

The Whole Child, Inc. - Payment Policy 2018

All of our services are private pay. There may be opportunity, based on individual health insurance and the service provided, for clients to seek reimbursement through health insurance on their own, or to use FlexPay if offered by client's health insurance. For more information about why we do not bill to health insurances, please see your website.

*Upon entry to the program every family pays an initial intake fee to cover time involved with determining placement for your child. Intake fees (listed below) are based on 2 levels of Intake based on the time involved.

All overdue accounts will incur a $25 late fee every 30 days past due. Accounts that are 60 days past due will be sent to collection unless a payment plan has been approved by The Whole Child, Inc.

If a child is funded by another agency, it remains the parent/guardian's responsibility to ensure that The Whole Child does receive payment and parent/guardian is ultimately responsible for payment of the invoice. If a child receives a scholarship/funding support from TWC, that scholarship/support is applied only for the term of service or total dollar amount articulated in the Financial Support Award letter.

Group Programs: Payment is expected upon invoice. Reimbursements will be discussed on a case-by-case basis and will be at the discretion of the Executive Director (E.D.) and/or Board of Directors. Payments will not be returned if a participant unilaterally decides not to participate after registering (outside of extenuating circumstances approved by E.D.). We cannot give credits for missed group classes as staffing is contracted and paid according to the number and needs of children expected. We appreciate a minimum of 24 hours notice for missed group attendance. If The Whole Child, Inc. needs to cancel a class, we will offer a make-up class or apply a TWC credit to your account. If we have not been informed that the other participants are not attending, and your child is the only one who shows up for a group - we will offer you a credit for the class OR a 30-minute private session.

Individual Services: Payments for any individual service must be made at or before time of service. Clients may request an online proactive invoice in which they can pre-pay for a designated number of sessions to be deducted from as sessions are used. Clients may also request an account statement from our Account Manager at any time. Cash/check accepted or payments can be made online at <http://www.thewholechildmatters.org/services-and-payments.html>.

We appreciate a minimum of 24 hours notice for missed private appointments OR missed group attendance.

For private appointments, absence with less than 24 hours notice will result in a $25 charge.

Some service providers are Collaborating Subletters and will be paid directly and per their payment policy.*
